ATTRIBUTE OF A BIBLICAL MAN

A Biblical Man understands that failure & faith often go hand in hand

SPEAKER NOTES

Zeal - Temperance = Recklessness (John 18:10, Matthew 14:28-31, 16:22, 17:1-5)

Our Enemy and our flesh should not be taken lightly (Luke 22:31-34)

Failure doesn't disqualify you from serving Jesus (Luke 22:31-32, John 21)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS:

- What stood out to you most from the talk today?

- Re-read today's, 'Attribute of a Biblical Man' on page 1 – what do you think it means that “failure & faith often go hand in hand?”

- How would your life change if you reframed failure? How would it change the way you view yourself? Your children? Your employees?

- How is a biblical view of personal failure connected to a biblical view of God's grace?

PUSH UPS FOR THIS WEEK

(See “God Speaks Through His Word” handout for more context)

Read this week: John Chapter 2. Use the below promptings as you go to the Word

(break up the 25 verses of John Chapter 2 into small sections, reading a small section of John 2 each morning)

Before opening the Bible:

Lord, help me rely more on your grace. Help me not to grow in my independence, but instead grow in my dependence on you.

While in the Word:

1. Lord what are you saying about yourself in this passage?

 2. In what ways have I not believed this truth or not applied it?

 3. Help me to engage with you more throughout my day. I truly desire to be led by you, instead of by my own leadership.
